Take Stock in Children provides an educational pathway for low-income students. For over 20 years, we have helped over 36,000 at-risk children stay in school, graduate from high school, complete college, and succeed in college, career, and life. This success is achieved through our innovative multi-year program model of mentorship, life skills, college success coaching, accountability, and scholarships. Over a quarter century, we have helped over 25,000 students graduate from high school, 90% enroll in college, and 70% graduate college and achieve postsecondary degree attainment, well over the national average.

The Scholar’s Promise

Take Stock student scholar promise to graduate from high school, go to college, and attain a postsecondary degree. Our students begin the Take Stock program in middle and early high school and sign a contract promising to achieve academic and personal goals. These goals include regularly meeting with their volunteer mentors, maintaining good grades, demonstrating good behavior and attendance, versus drug use and crime, and participating in college success workshops. When students reach high school graduation, they have successfully fulfilled these commitments, they are awarded a Florida Prepaid Project STARS Scholarship to a Florida college, university, or vocational/technical school. For 25 years, Take Stock in Children has been an in-school mentoring, college success, and scholarship program. To respond to our students’ needs and provide them with the services they desire to stay college-ready and college-bound, Take Stock transformed from an exponential, school-based model to a model that includes expanded virtual mentoring and student support services. While not without its challenges, the Take Stock network and community are dedicated to providing IMPACT OVER OBSTACLES.
